

Silver Memories Privacy Policy

Silver Memories respects your privacy. We are committed to protecting the privacy and security of personal information collected from our members, customers, suppliers, donors, volunteers, subscribers and other supporters as stipulated in the Privacy Act 1988.

If you disagree with our online Privacy Policy as set out below, you should not use our website or provide us with your personal details.

Your use of our website is deemed to signify your acceptance of this Privacy Policy.

Silver Memories may modify the Privacy Policy from time to time and if we do so, we will post any updated Privacy Policy on our website.

General Statement of Principle

Silver Memories will not sell, license or otherwise provide names, addresses or other personal information to any third party or to anyone wishing to contact our database for the purposes of marketing their own products and services. There may be links on our website to other websites that do not operate under Silver Memories Privacy Policy. We encourage you to review each site's privacy policy before disclosing any personally identifiable information.

You can visit our website and access information without giving us any personal information. However, in the interests of offering targeted and current information about Silver Memories, you may choose to give us your email address and or street address and telephone number so we can send you relevant information in the mail or keep you updated without activities. Or you may wish to subscribe or make donation. For these services we will also require your contact details.

You can access and correct your personal information and privacy preferences at any time. You can also have your name and address details taken off our database at any time. To enforce these rights contact our Privacy Officer.